

“Hope in God in Contemplative Community”

Order of Worship

HEARING GOD’S INVITATION

- Welcome and Opening Prayer Peggy Dulaney is a Servant Leader - again. Her third 3-year term. She currently serves as Chair - again. She is a retired nurse, now parish nurse.
- “Here for You” Cindy Orr has served as worship leader for The Anchorage for many events. She has led worship in churches and ministries for 20 years.
- Hebrews 6:19-20 Jonathan Jones is a Servant Leader and an ordained Priest with the Progressive Catholic Church. His ministry is called Fellowship of Mercy.

LISTENING FOR GOD’S HOPE

- Meditation Matt Rollins is a Servant Leader and serves as Minister of Spiritual Formation at First Baptist, Greenville.
- “Goodness of God” Cindy Orr
- Psalms 23 Susan Leaphart is a Servant Leader, serving her 2nd term. She is a retired church kindergarten teacher.

REFLECTING ON COMMUNITY

- Encounters with God Rosemary Goodall served as a Servant Leader and her 3rd year was Chair. She is a retired physical therapist.
- Michael Fleenor served as a Servant Leader and his 3rd year was Chair. He is a retired physician in the Asheville area.
- Any others who would like to offer a word about encounters with God through The Anchorage are welcome to speak.
- Gratitude for God And God’s people Catherine Powell is the Founding Servant Leader of The Anchorage (1998).

RESPONDING TO GOD’S INVITATION

- Pledge Pondering Susan Rice is a Servant Leader who has spent most of her adult life serving God on staff with CRU in Eastern Europe with her husband and now grown children.
- Reflection time Eric Barnhart is a Servant Leader with a gift for music. His ministry, Urban Contemplatives, creates weekly contemplative music livestreams and podcasts.

LEAVING IN BLESSING

- Benediction Christina Auch is a Servant Leader, currently serving as Chair-Elect. She is the Senior Pastor of Ascension Lutheran Church in Shelby, NC, and also a chaplain.

The Anchorage: A Contemplative Community for All

April 27, 2021