A Lenten Contemplative Book Study on Zoom

A Testament of Devotion

A Classic by Thomas Kelly

3 Thursdays, Feb. 18, 25 and March 4
either 10a-12p or 6:30 – 8:30p

(Select the time that suits you and stay with it if possible to build some community)

Thomas Kelly was a Quaker whose life changed from a strained academic who knew about God, to an authentic teacher who was acquainted with God. The patriarchal language is off-putting and dates the writing in the 1940's, but it is worth getting past that to get to the heart of this invitation to become aware of God NOW, and NOW, and NOW; to know that the light within is God, within you.

It continues to speak to countless pilgrims on the journey, who long for a more consistent awareness of God's presence. Gerald May said, "(This book) has been the single most helpful written resource for the most important endeavor of my life: practicing God's presence."

You are invited to join with others on Zoom for three sessions, as we reflect on our own lives using this insightful book. We will reflect together and then enjoy about 30 minutes alone with God to listen and be loved. You will want to set aside a place to honor that time in solitude.
