The Anchorage 24th Annual Beach Retreat

“Hope in God in Contemplative Community”

Friday, Jan. 28 - Sunday, Jan. 30

The topic this year seems to be one that is very needed in our world: HOPE! Over the last year whenever there has been a word of hope, it seems everyone listens. So, it is timely! We plan to just soak in that word with each other and with our holy and gracious God for the entire weekend.

Our rhythm will be as it has been for 22 of our 23 retreats, with last year being the only exception as we met on Zoom. We will gather in our meeting room for registration between 3:30 and 5pm on Friday. At 5 we will begin with some introductions, to each other and the retreat, before we go to supper at 6. After that our 4 meeting times will be the same with some quieting, settling in time, followed by some music and content, then solitude reflection time (often in your room) with a page of reflection ideas. We will come back to the meeting room for our listening groups to process our prayer, closing with music. We will enjoy overnight silence, each night between evening prayer and morning prayer and Saturday afternoon is free for walking on the beach, napping, reading, however God leads you. Our closing worship Sunday will be at 11, so we can be on the road by 12ish.

There is an oceanfront economic dining room! Whoever heard of such a thing?

Led by: The Rev. Catherine Skinner Powell, D. Min. As part of her own path to healing, Catherine went through a psychological/spiritual 3-week intensive in Washington State. There she learned that God is love. To better share this truth with others, she quit her 30-year computer programming career and founded The Anchorage: A Contemplative Community for All in 1998. She completed the Shalem Spiritual Guidance Program, the 30-day Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius at the Jesuit Center for Spiritual Growth in Wernersville, PA, and was also trained there to offer 8-day Ignatian Retreats.

And by: Cindy Orr. Cindy has been active in music ministry most of her life. She has served in her church music program, taught Sunday school classes and served in other various ways. She was in the group RainChild, that performed concerts and led praise and worship at churches, fairs, retreats and festivals. She served as Worship Leader at Russell Community Church in Greenville. This year, Cindy will do some teaching as well as lead worship that glorifies God and encourages God's people.
